

Research Activity: The Temperance Movement and Prohibition

With classmates, stage a town meeting, circa 1918, and conduct a debate between the two sides of the temperance movement: the “drys,” who support abstinence from and a complete ban on alcoholic beverages; and the “wets,” who believe it should be legal to produce and sell alcohol. Use U.S. History In Context to conduct your research.